The 25th Anniversary of the September 11 Attacks will be commemorated on Friday, September 11, 2026, marking a quarter-century since the tragedies. Across the United States, organizations and communities are honoring the with memorial ceremonies, days of service, and educational initiatives.

This simple meatloaf is a comforting classic that brings a sense of nostalgia with every slice. Its aroma fills the kitchen, turning the air savory as it bakes. The blend of ground beef and onion creates a tender, flavorful base. A hint of mustard in the glaze adds a subtle zing, balancing the sweetness of brown sugar and ketchup. Sharing this dish is like inviting a bit of tradition to the table, perfect for those gatherings where conversation weaves together memories and laughter.

Ingredients

- 1 1/2 pounds ground beef
- 1 onion chopped
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup dried breadcrumbs
- 1 egg
- salt to taste
- pepper to taste
- 1/3 cup ketchup
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard

Directions

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F.

Lightly grease a 9x5-inch loaf pan.

Combine the ground beef, the onion, the milk, the breadcrumbs, and the egg in a large bowl.

Season the meat mixture with the salt and the pepper.

Transfer the meat mixture to the prepared loaf pan.

Mix the ketchup, the brown sugar, and the mustard together in a small bowl until well combined.

Pour the sauce mixture over the meatloaf and spread it evenly over the top.

Bake the meatloaf until no longer pink in the center and the meat is cooked to 160 degrees F internally, about 1 hour.

Let the meatloaf rest for 5-10 minutes.

Serve.

This Month's Funny Bone

Beverly, 90 years young, had played golf every single day since her retirement 25 years ago. But one evening, she returned home looking unusually downcast.

"That's it," she told her husband, Gus. "I'm giving up golf. My eyesight has gotten so bad that once I hit the ball, I can't see where it goes."

Gus, who was a remarkable 103 years old, made her a comforting cup of tea and said, "Why don't you take me along and give it one more try?"

Beverly sighed. "That's no good," she replied. "You're 103! What help could you possibly be?"

Gus straightened up proudly and said, "I may be 103, but my eyesight is perfect!"

The next day, Beverly reluctantly took Gus to the golf course. She teed up, took a powerful swing, and squinted down the fairway. Turning to Gus, she asked, "Did you see the ball?"

"Of course I did!" Gus replied confidently. "I told you, my eyesight is perfect."

"Great!" said Beverly, feeling a surge of hope. "So, where did it go?"

Gus paused for a moment, then scratched his head. "...I don't remember."
